Platform Statement

My name is Alakhjot Singh (AI), and I'm running for the position of Vice President Student Life at LSU elections. As a student leader with experience organizing events, running a fashion club and various volunteering roles, I know how to create meaningful and engaging experiences for students. I am excited to continue enhancing campus life by introducing more social events, workshops, and student initiatives that promote inclusivity and student well-being. I'm committed to ensuring every student feels connected and supported. I am here to enhance the culture of our college.
